

NEW ARRIVALS

DIAMOND JEWELRY

$2,000-$5,000 Simply marvelous in the medium range.

➔ forest trump

For designer MICHAEL HEZAR, maple is an integral part of the FOREST COLLECTION he created for Image Jewelry, Inc. The maplewood pendants feature 18K-white-gold shapes set with round brilliant diamonds (pictured here with TCW .44 carat). The suggested retail price is $2,125. For more information, call (800) 404-8633.

← from thin air

This ALPINE BLOSSOM RING from DAVID LEE HOLLAND FINE JEWELRY, is inspired by a botanical theme. It is fashioned in 18K yellow gold and set with a round brilliant diamond (TCW .10 carat). Designs are available in five colors of gold and various diamond sizes. The suggested retail price is $4,895. For more information, call (212) 925-1944.

➔ charming snake

GERT HELLMUTH creates reptile-friendly jewelry. The tail of this 18K-yellow-and-white-gold snake features a crocodile-like textured surface from the German designer's KROKO COLLECTION. In keeping with the two-color theme, the ring is set with white and brown diamonds. The suggested retail price is $3,850. For more information, call (951) 788-6930.

➔ petal to metal

Classic, feminine motifs such as hearts and flowers are enjoying a surge of popularity. ERICA COURTNEY plays on those themes with this OPEN FLOWER 18K-yellow-gold necklace and pendant design set with diamonds. The suggested retail price is $3,840. For more information, call (310) 858-6700.

← full plumage

KC DESIGNS combines circles and a peacock-tail design in these 14K-white-gold and diamond earrings, which are also available in yellow gold. The suggested retail price is $2,685. For more information, call (212) 921-9270.