

Tittle Tatler

Centre, amber pendant, about £570; far right, pendant with black pearl, about £635, both by David Lee Holland

● Organic forms such as acorns and pinecones have inspired New York jeweller David Lee Holland to create a new range of gold pieces such as a natural black South Sea pearl which sits like a seed in a burst pod, or an amber orb nestling like an acorn in a cup.
